UAC App Submission Issue

We have corrected an issue that was causing application submissions to United Auto Credit (UAC) to fail when income was entered as annual income instead of monthly income. Now users can enter income as annual income and the submission to UAC will succeed.

Lender and Form Batch Issue

We corrected a problem that prevented a user from adding more than one lender or form batch in a session via the Admin Console. Previously, the user would get an error, but now the user can proceed with adding multiple records in one session.

Lender Management - Subscription Trial

We have added an Activate Free 30-Day Trial button to the lender management page of the REC 2012 Dealer Portal that will allow dealers to try the subscription option of AppOne free of charge for 30 days. After activating the 30-day trial, the dealer is able to use the system, to add non-integrated lenders, and print documents for these non-integrated lenders. After 30 days, the trial expires and the dealer cannot add lenders or print documents for non-integrated lenders until signing up for the subscription option of AppOne.

Integrated and Non-Integrated Lender Management/ Collateral Filtering

The Admin Console My Lenders page on the REC/VFI 2012 portals was updated to show integrated and non-integrated lenders in separate sections. The first section, AppOne Lenders, lists all integrated lender programs that are available to the user in the dealer's region. The user can filter these programs by collateral type and self-enable integrated lenders for the dealership. The second section, Other Lenders, lists all non-integrated lender programs that the dealer has added after signing up for the subscription option of AppOne.
